

Frank Lovato Jr's

Jockey Bootcamp Application

July 30 – August 1, 2010 Session

Limited numbers of openings are available for participating students. Applicants will be hand selected accordingly if the number of applicants exceeds the number of available openings. A follow-up phone call may be required. Audit positions are unlimited.

Name: _____
Address: _____
City: _____ State: _____ Zip: _____
Email: _____ Age: _____
Education Level: _____

Why would you like to participate in this workshop?

What are you hoping to gain from your participation in this workshop?

Do you have any experience with horses? Y / N

If yes, please describe including type of experience, location and date:

Lack of experience will not keep you from being admitted.

Do you have any experience working with racing thoroughbred or quarter horses? Y / N

If yes, please describe including type of experience, location and date:

Lack of experience will not keep you from being admitted.

If becoming a professional jockey does not work out for you, is there something else you would consider in the racing industry? Y / N

What? _____

Why do you want to be a jockey or exercise rider?

What are qualities you feel would make you a successful jockey or exercise rider?

What do you feel are or will be your strongest skills as a rider?

What core values do you believe in as a person?

What kind of relationships do you like to have with co-workers?

What riders/trainers have influenced your interest in racing to date and / or who do you admire in the racing world?

Is there anything that you would like to add about yourself?

*Note that this program has a zero tolerance for drugs and alcohol. Becoming a jockey is a selective profession; weight and height requirements are enforced by each state's racing authority. The Wooden Horse Corporation, Equicizer, and Frankie Lovato, Jr. are not responsible for students that are not able to obtain an apprentice jockey or jockey license.

Signature

Date

Print

For Office Use: Phone Interview? _____

Deposit Received? Y or N Amt: